

Authenticate User

NOTE:

In general, this use case is invoked as the result of another Use Case realizing the use is not yet authenticated. For that reason, the first step is presenting a standard logon UI – in response to a user action in another use case.